Dear Mr Leece

Professional Reference: Mr Simon Robeson

Further to your letter dated 12 September 2012 received today by e-mail, I am writing to provide you with a Professional Reference for Mr Simon Robeson in relation to his offer of a position within your Company.

I have known Simon in a professional capacity for over ten years and have worked closely with him on a number of important transactions including Screen Technology Ltd's admission to AIM in 2005 and the sale of our subsidiary BioDynamics Research Ltd to Quotient BioResearch Group in 2008. More recently Simon has advised us in relation to our investment in Cella Energy Ltd and also the subsequent external fund raising round which was completed during 2011. In each case Simon played a pivotal supporting role in ensuring that these deals went through to successful completion.

Simon is an experienced and hard-working professional who possesses a high degree of integrity and adds significant value through his extensive network and connections. I consider him to be completely trustworthy and I do not have any reservations, or know of any reason why you should not employ Simon. If Simon were to apply for a position within this company he would be accepted without hesitation.

Should you require any further information then please do not hesitate to contact me at the above address.

Yours sincerely,

David M Cavet
Finance Director
